

I Am From

By: Colin

I am from loving my mom. It is like she can touch my heart!

I am from a hamster and a bunny. My hamster looks like a worm as he wiggles through his tubes. I laugh so hard I feel like I am going to explode! When I play with my bunny, I feel like a bunny too, hopping around and playing with him.

I am from a dad who loves sports. I can't stop asking, "What's the score?" When my baseball team wins, I feel like I am in the Major League.

I am from a family that loves jokes. The jokes are as silly as silly can be. It feels like I am in a joke contest.

I am Colin.
