

I Am From
By Kameron

I am from my brother and sister teasing and making me feel bad because I am the youngest in the family.

I am from telling not the best jokes in my family and not caring when I get laughed at.

I am from having the laziest cat in the world and I can't play with my cat because my brother and sister are doing something else or they reject my offer to play with them.

I am from loving pugs because my friend showed me a picture of one and ever since then I have loved pugs and I think they are super cute.

I am from getting off the bus and walking down a long packed and dusty road with my friend. I am from getting home after school and jumping on my trampoline and after about thirty minutes going inside to play my Xbox.

I am from going deep into a bubble thinking about the memories that I had with my Grandpa and how he didn't know my name when he passed away because he had cancer.

I am from the future ahead of me and what will happen in the future.

I am from being a very adventurous kid, who wants to know about the world around us.

I am from waiting for my Mom and Dad to get back from their work.

I am from being a veteran student in Mrs. Devora's classroom.

I am from the world around me waiting for me to discover new things that lie deep inside the earth.

I am from taking one tiny step forward and then taking a huge step in to the world.

I am from this world creating me.

I am from... myself
