

I AM FROM... THINGS

By: Karina

★★

I am from enjoying pizza with family and-or friends.

I am from wanting a bird that is called a Peach-Fronted Conure.

I am from liking to Swim under the HOT Summer Sun.

I am from liking to hear my mom's ukulele when she plays it.

I am from having a family black-and-white rabbit called Bunnikula.

I am from liking to do experiments with my 'Tasty Science' kit I got for Christmas.

I am from an Indian dad and a mostly-American mom, who both love me even when I do something wrong. ^-----^

I am from living with kinda-annoying siblings in a four bedroom, three bathroom house and everyday my siblings aren't nice to me.

I am from the same two older siblings who tease me about my hair and say I'm "Dora The Explorer." \---\

I am from a church event called 'Activity Days' every other Wednesday and it goes

(1=yes 2=no) "1-2-1-2-1-2-1-2" and on and on until I'm twelve years old.

I am from when I used to see my best friend everyday after school because we were neighbors until I moved away near Christmas time.

I am from being with the best teacher I've ever had for three years and I loved my kindergarten teacher, too.

I am from being... me, myself and I!
